SILVER BOWL AWARD

Submitted Photo

During the University of Southern Mississippi's Founders' Day celebration on March 30, Erin LeAnn Fortenberry, a 2003 honors graduate of Gautier High School, was awarded the Phi Kappa Phi Silver Bowl Award, which is given to the USM graduating senior with the highest grade-point-average with the most credit hours. Fortenberry will graduate summa cum laude in May from USM with a biochemistry and molecular biology double major, with a minor in mathematics. She has a 4.0 GPA while earning more than 150 credit hours in four years. While at USM, Erin has been involved in Alpha Lambda Delta, Phi Kappa Phi, College Republicans and Phi Mu sorority. She represented the College of Science and Technology as a student ambassador. Her work has been published eight times in seven separate publications. She is a member of the American Chemical Society Student Affiliates, the Undergraduate Chemistry Research Lab and has served as a general chemistry laboratory instructor. After graduation, Fortenberry will attend medical school at the University of Mississippi Medical Center in Jackson, where she is a Wetherford Scholarship Award recipient. She is the daughter of Jerry and Ann Fortenberry of Gautier; and the granddaughter of Paul and Nettie Riviere of Moss Point and the late Shelby and Ellen Fortenberry of Columbia.

Fortenberry

An example of the first rank of evolution in the spelling and eventual pronunciation to an Anglicized form is the surname of today, Fortenberry.

The late Rev. George Kelly Fortenberry in his small volume Abstract History of the Fortenberry Family refers to family tradition in which the name was originally von Faulkenberg. Legal records reveal a close approximation.

Court clerks accounted for much of the various spellings, revealing they were spelling from sound -- the English sound. Those spellings are Valkenbury, Walkenburg, Falkenborough, Falkinborough, Falkenburgh, Forkenburg, Falkenbough, Falkenberry, Fautinbury, Fortinberry, to today's generally accepted Fortenberry with the two e's.

Earliest legal records to the ancestry of the Fortenberrys of Southwest Mississippi begins in Orange County, Virginia, on July 24, 1738, when Henry Falkenborough, Andrew Falkenborough, Jacob Falkenborough, and a second Henry Falkenborough signed a petition for a Gap Road.

Without further research into Orange County records, the Falkenborough name (with its spelling variations) is found in Anson County, North Carolina, in a series of land transactions from 1748 to 1761 and then on the tax list for 1763.

Quite possibly the Falkenburgs were in what is today South Carolina, that portion of the border in the Anson area not surveyed and determined until 1764. After 1764 the Falkenburg name is absent in Anson records and appears in Lancaster County, South Carolina, from that time on.

On April 2, 1748, Joseph White sold Henry Falkenborough 200 acres of land on the southside of PeeDee River. Some later deeds show that Henry sells land on the northside of PeeDee River near the mouth of Naked Creek. Thus, Henry must have held land on either side.

During the 1750's, however, Anson County, North Carolina, deeds show a number of land transactions, first by Andrew Falkinburgh on May 1, 1750, for 200 acres on the southside of Great PeeDee River "about half mile above Mount Pleasant." Witnesses include Hendrick Valkenbury (sic) and Isaac Falkinburgh.

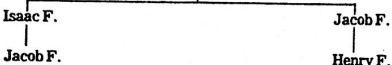

In April of 1751, Isaac Falkinburgh purchased 200 acres and the place called Pleasant Hill on the southside of PeeDee. One of the witnesses was Andrew. Isaac will hold Pleasant Hill until April 25, 1758, when he sells to Henry Falkenburgh who will pass it to his grandson.

Other obvious members of the family making transaction of land are Jacob and Henry Falkenborough. Although Henry, Isaac, Andrew, and Jacob are obviously related from examination of the deeds, the only definite relationships are spelled out by Henry Falkenburgh (Falkenburg), planter, in three deeds of September 7, 1759, December 7, 1759, and November 14, 1760.

Henry deeds Pleasant Hill to his grandson "Jacob Falkenbury, son of Isaac Falkenbury," in November, 1760. In the other two deeds he gives property to grandson Henry, son of Jacob Falkenbury.

Thus:

Henry Falkenborough, Sr.

In 1763 a tax list for Anson County, North Carolina, lists Henry, Andrew, and Isaac Falkinburg. In January of 1774 an Isaac Falconberry was administrator for the Estate of Benjamin Guardiner (sic) of Anson County.

The 1790 Federal Census of South Carolina lists the following Faulkenberrys and Faulkenburghs in Lancaster County of the Camden District as heads of families: Faulkenberry-Jacob, Jno. Joseph, Andrews (all living next door to each other), and Isaacs. Faulkenburgh-David, Henry (next door), Robert and Widow (next door), Jacob, Jno.

In all, eleven heads of families 21 years of age or older.

One of the early Fortenberry men to enter Mississippi was Isaac Fortenberry, born circa 1760-1770 and died in 1848 in Marion County, Mississippi. He married Bethany Cordelia Magee, born circa 1780-90 in South Carolina and died after 1846 in Marion County, Mississippi. Both Isaac and Bethany are buried on the Irvin Fortenberry place in present day Walthall County, Mississippi.

Isaac claimed public land on January 13, 1817, in Marion County, a tract of 160 acres described as NW 1/4 of Section 4, Township 1 North, Range 12 East.

The first listing of Isaac in the Federal Census in Mississippi is for Marion County in 1820 at which time he and Bethany have four sons and four daughters.

Children of Isaac and Bethany are as follows:

I. Rev. William M. Fortenberry (1799-1867) married first October 30, 1820, to Christine Brown and married secondly a widow, Mrs. Myra Davis Daughrill.

II. Bilza Delsy Fortenberry (1802-1890) married December 5, 1821, to Hardy A. Ryall (1791-1866).

III. Martha Charlotte Fortenberry (1809-1846) married in 1829 to Thomas Pigott (1804-1866). See page 38.

IV. Hugh Fortenberry (1811-) married in 1835 to a widow, Obedience Lee Applewhite (Bedy).

V. Irvin M. Fortenberry (ca 1815-after 1880) married in 1841 to K. Sophia P. Caroline Faulk (ca 1822-). See Faulk resumé.

VI. Barbara Fortenberry who is believed to have died early and without heirs.

VII. John W. Fortenberry (-) married April 22, 1841, to Mary Jane Rebecca Faulk (ca 1824-1890). See Faulk resumé.

Isaac Fortenberry (circa 1760-1770) exact relationship to a William Fortenberry who settled in the southeast portion of Pike County, Mississippi, near the Marion County line in 1819 is not documented. Researchers agree, however, they are related and probably closely. Some sound theories have been given for the relationship but future research will answer that question.

William Fortenberry, born circa 1776 in South Carolina and died February 1, 1842, in Pike County, Mississippi. He married Violette Kennington, also born in South Carolina circa 1786 and died May 18, 1858.

William appears in the 1820 census of Pike County with two sons and two daughters and, in addition to himself and wife Violette, a woman of 45 years or over.

Children of William and Violette are as follows:

I. Gazie C. Fortenberry, born July 16, 1805, in South Carolina and died June 21, 1884. He married 1833 to Sallie Brown Coswald (1810-1883) a widow.

II. Calvin Kennington Fortenberry was born 1806 and died December 18, 1887. He married Narcissa Simmons (1813-1890).

III. Sibby Fortenberry was born December 3, 1809, and died October 13, 1878. She married Wyatt Smith (1809-1894).

IV. Ivy Fortenberry was born October 23, 1812, in South Carolina, and died September 30, 1888. She was a spinster.

V. William Fortenberry was born December 9, 1814, in South Carolina and died January 8, 1896. He married 1848 to Elizabeth Martha Cutrer (1827-1909).

VI. Oliff Fortenberry was born September 22, 1817, in South Carolina, and died January 22, 1891. She was a spinster.

VII. Alfred Fortenberry was born January 26, 1823, and died March 2, 1861. He married 1848 to Mary Aderine Faulk (1828-1888). See Column 3, this page.

VIII. Hollis Fortenberry was born February 12, 1825, and died October 24, 1867. He married Margany Jeans (1828-1909).

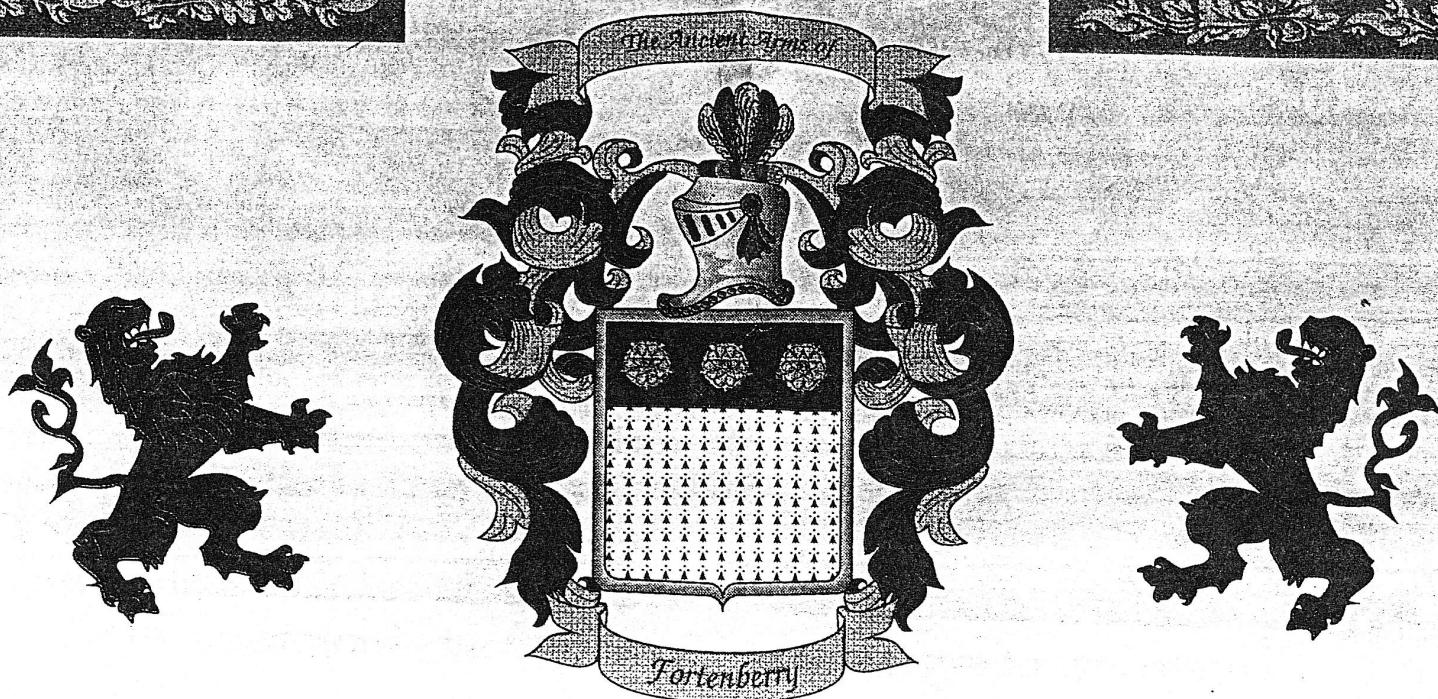

IX. Burrell Fortenberry was born in 1827 and died circa 1865. He married Eliza Ellzey.

X. Rev. Willis J. Fortenberry was born November 28, 1829, and died October 1, 1905. He married 1853 to Louisa Blackwell.

The Fortenberry genealogy was first placed in a permanent form in 1942 by the late Rev. George Kelly Fortenberry (1869-1959). The 99-page volume has serious deficiencies and must be used with caution. On the other hand, the Reverend Fortenberry must be credited with an early attempt in recording the family history without genealogical research tools and genealogical research knowledge of today. And, the love for his family can not be devalued one iota.

The Ancient History of the Distinguished Surname Fortenberry

The chronicles of England show the early records of the name Fortenberry to be derived from the Norman race. The name appears in England from about 1066 A.D., and its history is interwoven within the majestic tapestry which contains the history of Britain.

Professional researchers used such ancient manuscripts as the Domesday Book (compiled in 1086 by William the Conqueror), the Ragman Rolls, the Wace poem, the Honour Roll of the Battel Abbey, The Curia Regis, Pipe Rolls, the Falaise Roll, tax records, baptisms, family genealogies, and local parish and church records to establish that the first record of the name Fortenberry was found in Bedfordshire where they were anciently seated as Lords of the Manor. After the Battle of Hastings in 1066, William, Duke of Normandy, having prevailed over King Harold, granted most of Britain to his many victorious Barons. It was not uncommon to find a Baron, or a Bishop, with 60 or more Lordships scattered throughout the country. These he gave to his sons, nephews and other junior lines of his family and they became known as under-tenants. They adopted the Norman system of surnames which identified the under-tenant with his holdings so as to distinguish him from the senior stem of the family. After many rebellious wars between his Barons, Duke William, commissioned a census of all England to determine in 1086, settling once and for all, who held which land. He called the census the Domesday Book, indicating that those holders registered would hold the land until the end of time. Hence, conjecturally, the surname is descended from the tenant of the lands of Founberry, a Norman noble who was recorded in the Domesday Book census of 1086.

Your name, Fortenberry, occurred in many references, but from time to time, spellings included Founberry, Fountenberry, Fortenberry, Ferontherry, Faulketherry, Fawtenberry, Fountainberry, Sicheberry, Southberry, Southburi, Sicherbury, Southbury, and many others. Scribes recorded and spelled the name as it sounded. It wasn't unlikely that a person would be born with one spelling, married with another, and buried with a headstone which showed another spelling.

The Normans were commonly believed to be of French origin but, more accurately, they were of Viking origin. The Vikings landed in the Orkneys and Northern Scotland about the year 870 A.D., under their King, Stirgud the Stout. Later, under their Earl, Thorfinn Rollo, they invaded France about 910 A.D. The French King, Charles the Simple, after Rollo laid siege to Paris, finally conceded defeat and granted northern France to Rollo. Duke William who invaded and defeated England in 1066, was descended from the first Duke Rollo of Normandy.

The surname Fortenberry emerged as a notable family name in the county of Bedfordshire where this prominent Norman family were anciently seated. They are believed to have originated in a small commune in the Pas de Calais. During the time of the Norman Kings there were many feudal rebellions. Many barons were attainted, traded their lands, and moved their families out of the royal influence, even into Scotland. Sir John Foulthbury of Bedford. Sire John di Southburi of Bedford about 1270 also carried the same Coat of Arms as the Founberry but the connection is hazy. This appears to be a small population and exclusive surname which remained principally in Bedfordshire, although there was a branch of the Atwater family which also carried the same Arms. Outstanding amongst the family at this time was the Founberry family of Bedfordshire.

The surname Fortenberry contributed much to local politics and in the affairs of England or Scotland. During the 12th century many of these Norman families moved north to Scotland. Later, in the 16th, 17th and 18th centuries England was ravaged by religious and political conflict. The Monarchy, the Church and Parliament fought for supremacy. The unrest caused many to think of distant lands.

In Ireland, settlers became known as the "Adventurers for land in Ireland". They "undertook" to keep the Protestant faith, occupying the lands of the Irish. As early as 1172 branches of certain family surnames moved to Ireland with the invasion of Strongbow, still more were encouraged to be a part of the Plantation of Ulster in the early 17th century. Later, the Cromwellian settlements moved other families. There is no evidence of this family surname migrating to Ireland but this does not preclude individual migration.

The democratic way of life of the New World beckoned many. They sailed aboard the fleet of sailing ships known as the "White Sails".

In North America, migrants which could be considered a kinsman of the family name Fortenberry, or variable spellings of that same family name included settlers recorded from the mid 17th century in the great migration from Europe. Migrants settled in the eastern seaboard from Newfoundland, to Maine, to Florida, and to the islands. From the port of arrival settlers joined the wagon trains westward. During the American War of Independence some declared their loyalty to the Crown and moved northward into Canada and became known as the United Empire Loyalists.

Meanwhile, the family name was highly regarded in the social stream. There were many notables of this name, Fortenberry including notable personalities of this name who have contributed to the society on both sides of the Atlantic.

Research has determined the above Coat of Arms to be the most ancient recorded for the family surname Fortenberry.
